Galitt supports ACBB Judo Loic Pietri world champion

Boulogne (France), October 22nd, 2013

Galitt welcomes the victory of Loic Pietri, judo world champion in less than 81 kg category. Galitt support his club, the ACCB Judo. The company embraces the core values of the ACBB: respect, honesty and courage.

Headquartered in Boulogne (France), Galitt, an expert in consulting and services in payment systems and secure electronic transactions, elected to become a sponsor of the Judo section of ACBB (Athletic Club de Boulogne-Billancourt) in 2012, with the preparation of the 2016 Rio Olympics as its main objective. Now, Loic Pietri is world champion, the first in the history of French judo in the less than 81 kg category. This achievement comes after a long series of victories for ACBB Judo with historical champions including Jean-Luc Rougé, Thierry Rey, Larbi Boudaoud, Thierry Fabre and Loic Korval among others.

Galitt and ACBB Judo share a set of values that apply similarly in sports and in business:

- Respect,
- Sincerity,
- Courage,
- Bravery,
- Humility,
- Self-control,
- Politeness,
- Friendship.

Gerard Tchakgarian, Galitt CEO, declares: “Loic Pietri victory comes right to our hearts and proves that ACBB Judo values are in harmony with those of Galitt. Every day we demonstrate our expertise and our commitment to better serve our customers.”

Lionel Capra, in charge of partnerships at ACBB Judo adds: “The sponsorship established with Galitt for the whole 2012-2016 Olympiad is essential for our development. This year results are excellent with Loic world champion title, but also with a vice-world champion title for Morgane Duchene, 17 years old, in the feminine team. Galitt sponsorship allows us to ensure our young and adult athletes participate in more competitions and training courses, helping them to thrive and obtain sports achievements.”

Galitt supports ACBB Judo for several projects: preparation for 2016 Rio Olympics, for which Loic Pietri world champion title constitutes a very positive step, the re-creation of a high level feminine judo team, and the inclusion of disabled persons thanks to judo practice.
